

Rejthar Stuart Law – Privacy Policy

Effective date: 1 January 2025

1. Introduction

This Privacy Policy explains how Rejthar Stuart Law (referred to as "we," "us," or "our") collects, uses, discloses, and protects your personal information in compliance with the Privacy Act 2020.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect personal information from you when you:

- Submit forms on our website (e.g., your name, email address, and contact details).
- Communicate with us via email, phone, or other means.
- Use our services or interact with our website.

3. Purpose of Collection

We collect personal information for the following purposes:

- To provide legal services to you.
- To communicate with you regarding your cases or inquiries.
- To improve our website and services.
- To comply with legal obligations.

4. How We Use Your Information

Your information may be used in the following ways:

- To respond to your inquiries and provide customer support.
- To process transactions and send you confirmation.
- To inform you about changes to our services.
- To comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

5. Disclosure of Information

We will not disclose your personal information to third parties without your consent, except in the following circumstances:

- To service providers who assist us in operating our business (e.g., IT service providers).
- To comply with legal obligations or respond to lawful requests from authorities.
- In the event of a merger or acquisition, your personal information may be transferred.

6. Data Security

We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from loss, misuse, unauthorized access, or disclosure. This includes implementing technical and organizational measures to safeguard your data.

7. Your Rights

Under the Privacy Act 2020, you have the right to:

- Access your personal information held by us.
- Request corrections to your personal information if it is inaccurate.
- Withdraw your consent for us to process your personal information.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We encourage you to review this policy periodically for any changes. The effective date of this policy will be indicated at the top.
